

DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword.....	vii
Acknowledgements.....	xi
Authors and editors.....	xiii

Introduction. The Promise and Perils of Innovation in Cross-Border Procurement

Gabriella M. RACCA and Christopher R. YUKINS	1
1. Innovation in Procurement: Its Meanings, and How It Is Addressed in this Book.....	1
1.1. Purchase of innovation	2
1.2. Innovation in Procurement.....	7
1.3. Innovation in the Procurement Process	9
2. Innovation Through Cross-Border Procurement: Key Constraints	11
2.1. First Constraint: A Friendly Environment	15
2.2. Second Constraint: The Context	16
2.3. Third Constraint: The Centralized Procurement Agencies	21
2.4. Fourth Constraint: Language Barriers and Limited Procurement Professionals	24
3. Conclusion	26

Part I. Crossborder Procurement and Innovation

Chapter 1. Process Innovation Under the New Public Procurement Directives

Ivo LOCATELLI	31
1. Introduction	31
2. Joint Cross-Border Public Procurement.....	32
2.1. Joint cross-border procurement using a CPB	33

BRUYLANT

2.2. Joint cross-border procurement between contracting authorities from different Member States.....	33
2.3. Joint cross-border procurement: the policy dimension	34
3. Cooperative procurement	36
3.1. CPBs and process innovation in public procurement	39
3.2. Current state of play	40
3.3. The systemic relevance of CPBs.....	43
3.4. The Commission’s policy on cooperative procurement	46
4. The digitisation of public procurement.....	46
4.1. The phases of the transition to e-procurement.....	46
4.2. Exceptions to the use of electronic communications.....	48
4.3. The procurement of works and e-procurement	50
4.4. Interoperability of digital solutions across the Single Market and adjustments to technological development	50
4.5. Security levels and electronic signature	52
4.6. E-procurement: A tool to re-engineer the public procurement process	53
5. The European Single Procurement Document (ESPD)	54
5.1. The ESPD and the “winner only” principle.....	56
5.2. The ESPD and the Single Market dimension	57
5.3. The ESPD as a driver for the introduction of the ‘once-only’ principle	58
5.4. Initial implementation of the ESPD	59
6. Conclusions	60
Chapter 2. Cooperative Purchasing: A US Perspective
Justin B. KAUFMAN	65
1. Introduction to Cooperative Purchasing	65
1.1. Fair and Open Competition, Transparency, and Accountability	66
1.2. The Case for Cooperative Purchasing	67
2. The Legal Basis	67
2.1. ABA Model Procurement Code.....	69
2.2. A State Example: Minnesota Law	70
3. Common Types of Cooperatives	71
3.1. Formal Cooperatives	71
3.2. Piggybacking	72

3.3. Third-Party Aggregators.....	73
4. From Types to Characteristics.....	73
4.1. Formality as a factor.....	73
4.2. Piggy-backing as a factor	74
4.3. Third-Party Aggregation as a factor.....	74
5. A Sample of US Federal and State Cooperatives	75
5.1. Federal Cooperative Purchasing Program and State Equivalents	75
5.2. Federal – State Equivalents.....	77
5.3. NASPO ValuePoint.....	77
5.4. Minnesota Multistate Contracting Alliance for Pharmacy MMCAP Infuse.....	81
5.5. Common Characteristics and Ranges.....	83
6. Deciding to Participate in Cooperative Purchasing.....	84
6.1. Moving forward with cooperative purchasing.....	85
6.1.1. Quantity and pricing considerations	85
6.1.2. Meeting fair and open competition requirements	86
6.1.3. Legal compliance.....	87
6.1.4. Equality and sustainability – A case for balance	88
6.2. Keys to success	88
6.3. Additional considerations	89
7. Conclusion.....	91
Chapter 3. European Joint Cross-border Procurement and Innovation
Roberto CAVALLO PERIN and Gabriella M. RACCA	93
1. The Challenges for Cross-border Procurement.....	93
2. The European Administrative Cooperation among Public Administrations.....	94
3. Cooperation Agreements involving Contracting Authorities from Different Member States	102
4. The European Territorial Cooperation Grouping and other Joint Entities	108
5. The Different models of Cross-border Joint Procurement: Joint award or Use of Offered Centralized Purchasing Activities.....	118

6. Innovative Joint Cross-border Procurement Strategies through Framework Agreements	125
7. The Execution Phase of Joint Cross-border Contracts	127
8. Lessons Learned from Transatlantic Experiences.....	130
Chapter 4. The Relevance of Promoting Collaborative and Joint Cross Border Procurement for Buying Innovative Solutions
Patricia VALCÁRCEL FERNÁNDEZ	133
1. Introduction	133
2. The Public Procurement of Innovative Solutions as Public Strategy: The Importance of ‘Demanding’ Innovation by the Public Sector	134
3. Origin and Development of the Idea of Using Public Procurement as an Instrument for Fostering Innovation in the EU	137
3.1. Innovation in EU soft law . Key milestones and the promotion thereof with the approval of the Europe 2020 strategy	137
3.2. The strengthening of the CPI through Directive 2014/24/EU.....	140
4. What are we talking about when we talk about ‘Joint Public Procurement’?	142
5. Directive 2014/24/EU and the Increasing Opportunities for Joint Cross-Border Public Procurement ?.....	146
6. Collaborative or Joint Cross-Border Public Procurement for Boosting Innovative Solutions	151
6.1. Introduction: new strategic approach to innovation	151
6.2. Spurring institutional channels in order to achieve information, exchange experiences and provide support (economic, legal, etc.).....	154
6.3. Elements for success of the PPI, particularly within the framework of joint international procurement	155
6.3.1. Technological and market surveillance, as instruments for identifying and effectively planning purchase needs	155
6.3.2. The preparation of ‘early demand maps’	156
6.3.3. Preliminary market consultations.....	156

6.3.4. The support of multidisciplinary technical groups 158

7. Innovative SMEs: The Need to Accommodate Them in Joint
Cross-Border Public Procurement Procedures..... 159

8. Analysis of Cases 160

8.1. The DECIPHER Project 160

8.2. The PAPIRUS Project 164

9. Conclusions 168

Part II. Smart Cities and Procurement

Chapter 5. Smartness and the Cities

Giuseppe Franco FERRARI..... 173

1. Smartness and the city..... 173

2. Smartness: Some implications 176

3. Smartness and public administration: A fresh start 179

4. Smartness and public procurements..... 182

Chapter 6. Public Contracts and Smart Cities

Jean-Bernard AUBY 187

1. Introduction 187

2. Transformations Induced in the Urban Functioning
by the Evolution Towards ‘Smart Cities’ 188

2.1. Transformation of the urban infrastructure 188

2.2. Digitalization and data..... 188

2.3. Changes in governance 189

3. (Already partially observed) consequences upon contractual procedures and regimes 189

3.1. Digitalization of procedures and overwhelming presence of data..... 190

3.2. Concern for sustainable development 191

3.3. Innovation as a central issue..... 191

4. (Probable) long-run consequences on categories of contracts 193

4.1. More parties assembled 193

4.2. More (functionally) global contracts..... 194

4.3. Longer terms 194

Chapter 7. Procurement and Smart Cities: Exploring Examples on Both Sides of the Atlantic

Laurence FOLLIOT-LALLIOT and Peter T. McKEEN	195
1. Introduction	195
2. Public Policy as Main Driver for Smart Cities' Innovation	197
2.1. First steps – Operational changes	200
2.2. Building on public needs	201
2.3. Smarts cities require combined operation of traditional services and e-services	202
3. Smart Cities Need Innovative Procurement Techniques	205
3.1. Needs assessments	206
3.2. Procurement design	206
4. Going Beyond Public Procurement Contracts: Smart Public-Private Collaboration	209
5. Contracts for Smart Cities Need to Find Smart Financing	213
6. Special Clauses for Contracts in Smart Cities	215
6.1. Data collection	215
6.2. Data release policy	217
6.3. Data protection	220
7. Designing Contracts for Smart Cities	220
7.1. Global contracts for smart cities	220
7.2. Specific clauses on technical adaptation are needed	221
8. Conclusion	222
Chapter 8. From Works Contracts to Collaborative Contracts: The Challenges of Building Information Modeling (BIM) in public procurement
Giuseppe M. DI GIUDA and Gabriella M. RACCA	223
1. Introduction	223
2. Collaborative and integrated processes in public works contracts	231
3. Construction procurements and contracts models in different legal systems	238
4. Collaborative Contracts: Relational Project Delivery Arrangements (RPDAs)	241
4.1. Multi-party and Poly-party contracts	242
4.2. Early Involvement of Key Participants	243
4.3. Goals validation and global optimization	244
4.4. Shared risk and rewarding	245

4.5. Decision making in Relational Projects Delivery Arrangements	252
4.6. Liability among Contract Parties	253
4.7. Teamwork and New Project Delivery Phases	255
4.8. Building Information Modeling challenges	256
5. Integrated Project Delivery and Culture of Collaboration.....	261
5.1. A Focus on the European Experience on Collaboration	262
6. Comparison among different Contract Procedures in the Private Sector and challenges for their application in Public Procurement	264
7. Conclusions	269

Part III. Encouraging Innovation

Chapter 9. Public Procurement as a Strategy for the Development of Innovation Policy

José Maria GIMENO FELIU	275
1. The European reform of public procurement's main objectives	275
2. The European public procurement reform's areas	276
3. Public Procurement as a Strategy.....	278
4. Public Procurement as a tool to promote innovation.....	281

Chapter 10. State Aid and Procurement for Research, Development and Innovation

Bianca RACOLȚA and Dacian C. DRAGOS	291
1. Introduction	291
2. Conceptual Background – Instruments for State Intervention on Public Markets	293
3. Public Procurement for Innovation.....	294
3.1. From classical procurement to strategic procurement	294
3.2. The legal provisions	295
3.3. The Innovation partnership.....	296
3.4. The concepts of PCP and PPI	297
3.4.1. Pre-Commercial Procurement (PCP).....	297
3.4.2. Public Procurement for Innovation	299
4. State Aid for R&D&I.....	299
5. Public Procurement for Innovation vs State Aid for Innovation	303

6. Final Considerations	312
Chapter 11. The U.S. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program: A Comparative Assessment
Crystal SANTERRE-FUNDERBURG and Christopher YUKINS	315
1. Introduction	316
2. The SBIR Program: Description.....	318
2.1. Governing Statutes and Policies.....	319
2.2. Description of SBIR Phases I, II, and III.....	321
3. Measuring SBIR Program Success.....	322
4. European Union (EU) Innovation Program.....	325
5. Defining Features of SBIR Contracts	328
5.1. Award Preferences	328
5.2. Data Rights	329
5.3. Competition	332
6. Conclusion and Recommendations	335
Chapter 12. Innovation Partnerships: Purpose, Scope of Application and Key Elements of a New Instrument of Strategic Procurement
Christoph KRÖNKE	337
1. Innovation Partnership as a Specific Instrument of Strategic Procurement.....	337
1.1. Scope of application	339
1.1.1. Solutions available on the market do not meet the procurement need.....	339
1.1.2. Connection of the innovation to the subject-matter of the contract	339
1.2. Degree of Innovation	340
1.2.1. Development and purchase of innovations.....	341
2. Distinguishing Innovation Partnerships From Other Procedures Which Also Promote Innovation.....	342
2.1. Key elements of the award procedure	343
2.1.1. Submission of requests to participate.....	343
3. Negotiation	344
4. Performance of the Innovation Partnership	345
5. Outlook: Made for ‘Big Innovation’	345

Part IV. Innovation in the Procurement Process

Chapter 13. Innovation in the Evaluation of Public Procurement Systems
Lena DIESING and Paulo MAGINA 349

1. Introduction 349

 1.1. Background, the creation and evolution of the MAPS 351

2. The revision process of the MAPS..... 355

3. The New Methodology for Assessing Procurement Systems
(MAPS 2018)..... 360

 3.1. Pillar I – Legal, Regulatory and Policy Framework..... 362

 3.2. Pillar II – Institutional Framework and Management Capacity..... 363

 3.3. Pillar III – Procurement Operations and Market Practices..... 364

 3.4. Pillar IV – Accountability, Integrity and Transparency of the Public
 Procurement System 365

4. The governance structure of the New MAPS..... 366

 4.1. MAPS Partners 368

 4.2. MAPS Network 368

 4.3. Steering Committee..... 368

 4.4. Technical Advisory Group 369

 4.5. The MAPS Secretariat..... 369

 4.6. Objective 1: Promotion of the tool / MAPS 370

 4.7. Objective 2: Quality control/assurance of assessments and of assessors 370

 4.8. Objective 3: Impact studies around the use of MAPS, including collection of statistics/data 371

 4.9. Objective 4: Maintenance of the tool (future improvements)..... 371

 4.10. Objective 5: Training for officials and assessors..... 371

5. Conclusion 372

Chapter 14. The Pursuit of Streamlined Purchasing: Commercial Items, E-Portals, and Amazon
Peter T. MCKEEN 373

1. Introduction	373
2. Procurement Reform and Commercial Items	373
3. Federal Purchase Cards and Lessons Learned	375
4. Commercial Item Purchases – The Next Steps	376
5. Amazon.gov	377
6. Streamlined Procurements – Lessons Learned	383
6.1. Purchase cards.....	383
6.2. Framework agreements	385
6.3. Bid protests	386
7. Conclusion.....	386
Chapter 15. Preliminary Market Consultations in Innovative Procurement: A Principled Approach and Incentives for Anticompetitive Behaviors
Antonio MIÑO LÓPEZ	389
1. Fundamentals.....	389
1.1. Introduction	389
1.2. Concept.....	390
1.3. Primary and secondary goals of PMC. Expansion of the figure	392
2. Regulation.....	393
2.1. Precedents	393
2.2. Directive 2014/24, on public procurement	394
2.3. Transposition to national laws	395
2.3.1. Spain.....	395
2.3.2. United Kingdom.....	396
2.3.3. France	396
2.4. Full regulation may not be the best option.....	397
3. Some Features of the Public Market Consultation.....	398
3.1. The PMC as a process.....	398
3.2. Formats.....	399
3.3. Advisor.....	399
4. Principles of Public Procurement in PMC: Non-discrimination, Transparency and Competition.....	401
4.1. Principle of non-discrimination.....	401
4.2. Principle of transparency.....	404
4.3. Principle of competition.....	406

4.3.1. Information asymmetries	407
4.3.2. Incentives for competing in PMC	407
4.3.3. Incentives for colluding in PMC	409
4.3.4. Risk for competition from the PMC design	410
4.3.5. Risk for competition from the consulted firms.....	411
4.3.6. Incentives for an autonomous competition in PMC.....	412
4.3.7. Position of the Spanish Competition Authority	412
5. Prior Involvement of Tenderers in PMC	413
5.1. Fabricom and Article 41 of Directive 2014/24	413
5.2. Direct and indirect participation in the previous PMC.....	414
5.3. Scope and limits of the exclusion.....	414
5.3.1. Right of defence and right to appeal	414
5.3.2. Exclusion	416
Chapter 16. On the Non-tariff Barriers Obstructing Free Trade in the Transatlantic Defense Procurement Market
Daniel E. SCHOENI	419
1. Introduction	419
2. Defense Procurement in the United States.....	422
2.1. History	422
2.2. Constitutional features	425
2.2.1. Built-in gridlock.....	427
2.2.2. A strong legislature.....	427
2.2.3. The centrality of defense	428
2.3. Law	432
2.3.1. Internal federal procurement laws	433
2.3.2. External federal procurement laws	434
3. Defense Procurement in the European Union	437
3.1. History	437
3.1.1. The Treaty of Westphalia	437
3.1.2. Cold War	439
3.1.3. Post-Cold War.....	440
3.2. Constitutional features	441
3.2.1. Protectionism and fragmentation.....	442
3.2.2. Common security and defense policy.....	445
3.2.3. Separateness of defense	446
3.3. Law	447

3.3.1. Internal laws	447
3.3.2. External laws.....	449
4. Toward a Free Market in Defense	450
4.1. Comparisons	450
4.2. Mutual benefits from removing non-tariff barriers.....	452
4.3. Economics	453
4.4. Capabilities.....	454
4.4.1. Politico-military.....	455
5. Strategies for Removing, Mitigating, and Avoiding Non-Tariff Barriers	456
5.1. The long-term strategy for removing non-tariff barriers: harmonization via reciprocal defense agreements	457
5.2. Medium-term strategies for mitigating non-tariff barriers.....	458
5.2.1. Addressing public relations	459
5.2.2. Debunking the trade imbalance	461
5.2.3. Reforming export control regimes.....	462
5.2.4. Consolidation versus specialization	463
5.3. A near-term strategy for avoiding non-tariff barriers: the U.S. foreign military sales program as a model for collaborative procurement	464
5.3.1. The U.S. foreign military sales program	464
5.3.2. Collaborative procurement in the EU.....	465
5.3.3. FMS as a model for collaborative procurement.....	466
6. Conclusion	468
Chapter 17. Electronic Means as an Approach to Public Purchasing
Matteo PIGNATTI	471
1. Introduction: Electronic Tools for the Public Procurement Cycle Management	471
2. Innovation through e-Procurement in the ‘Pre-Awarding Phase’.....	473
3. Innovation through e-Procurement in the ‘Awarding Phase’	474
3.1. The electronic platform in public procurement	481
3.2. The European Single Procurement Document – ESPD.....	482
3.3. E-Submission	487
3.4. E-Award	492
3.5. Electronic Auctions	494
3.6. Electronic catalogues.....	496

3.7. The Dynamic Purchasing System: future perspective on their use	498
4. The Management of Public Contracts through Electronic Means and the e-Invoice	501
5. Conclusions	503
Chapter 18. A Qualitative Step from e-Communication to e-Procurement: the Estonian e-Procurement Model
Mari Ann SIMOVART and Marina BORODINA	507
1. Introduction	507
2. Background and Recent Developments	508
2.1. Time-line of developing e-procurement in Estonia	508
2.2. Characteristics of the Estonian e-Procurement Register	510
2.3. Comprehensive e-procurement environment	513
3. Legal Challenges and Possibilities Attributed to Electronic Procurement	514
3.1. Does the e-procurement system support the primary goals of the EU public procurement policy?	514
3.2. Does the e-procurement system support secondary EU public procurement policy goals?	517
3.3. Does the e-procurement system support the objective of effective review proceedings?	518
4. Conclusions	520
Chapter 19. An Overview of Innovative Procurement in Eastern Europe
Silvia PONZIO	521
1. Introduction	521
2. The Role of Public Procurement as a Driver of Innovation	522
3. Demand-Driven Approaches to Public Procurement in the EU Policy Framework	524
4. The Challenges in Transposition of EU Procurement Regulations in Eastern Europe	528

5. A Case Study on PPI in Eastern Europe: Lessons Learned from the PPI2Innovate Project	535
Chapter 20. The New Asian Development Bank Procurement Policy and Regulations: Promoting Innovation in Public Procurement in Asia? Jellie M. MOLINO	537
1. Introduction	537
2. Asian Development Bank and Asia: its Past, Present and Future	538
3. ADB's Milestones in Procurement Reforms, 1960s to 2017.....	539
4. ADB at 50: Innovations in Public Procurement.....	541
4.1. Quality-based procurement principles	542
4.1.1. Quality	542
4.1.2. Value for Money (VFM) as a core procurement principle	543
4.2. Procurement risk framework	545
4.3. New practices	547
4.3.1. Contract management	547
4.3.2. Abnormally low bids	547
4.4. Specialized areas	549
4.4.1. Fragile, conflict-affected and emergency situations.....	549
4.4.2. E-procurement.....	550
4.4.3. Public-private partnerships	551
4.4.4. High-level technology	552
4.5. Strategic procurement planning	552
4.5.1. Procurement review	553
4.5.2. Alternative procurement arrangements	554
4.6. Procurement methods.....	555
4.6.1. Consulting services and non-consulting administered by ADB borrowers.....	555
4.6.2. Framework agreements for consulting services	556
4.7. Bidding procedures	557
4.8. Complaints, compliance and eligibility.....	558
4.8.1. State-owned enterprises (SOEs)	561
5. Moving Forward: ADB Strategy 2030 Achieving a Prosperous, Inclusive, Resilient and Sustainable Asia and the Pacific.....	562
6. Conclusion	563

Chapter 21. Innovation in Public Procurements in the Egyptian PPP Legislation (With reference to PPP Legislation in Dubai and Kuwait)
Mohamed A. M. ISMAIL	565
1. Introduction	565
2. New Award Procedures in PPP Legislation in Egypt, Kuwait and Dubai: Concepts	568
3. Award Procedures in PPP Legislation in Egypt, Kuwait and Dubai: Innovations	570
3.1. Profile of innovation in award procedures in the Egyptian PPP legislation.....	570
3.2. Award evaluation in the Egyptian PPP legislation.....	576
3.3. PPP legislation in Dubai.....	578
3.4. Direct contracting in Dubai PPP legislation	580
3.5. The PPP legislative and regulatory frameworks in Kuwait	581
3.6. Terms for qualifications	585
3.7. Evaluation of offers.....	588
3.8. Submission of one proposal	589
3.9. Review proceedings.....	592
3.10. Innovation in PPP award procedures to encourage Foreign Direct Investments (FDI) in Arab Countries	592
3.11. How innovation in award procedures in PPP in Arab countries can improve socio-economic developments.....	594
4. Conclusions	596
Chapter 22. Autonomy and Innovation in Italian Regional Procurement: the Sicilian Case
Anna ROMEO	603
1. Regional Contracts and Competition from a European Perspective	603
2. The Coexistence of a National Legislation with the System of Regional Competencies in Public Procurement in Italy: The Sicilian Case	605
3. The Aggregation of Public Procurement in Sicily	610
4. Final Considerations	613
Chapter 23. Innovation in Public Procurement Process in Armenia: A Strategy for EU Integration

Ani ASATRYAN	615
1. Introduction	615
2. Public Procurement System of Armenia in the context of Eurasian Economic Union.....	616
2.1. Public Procurment System of Soviet Armenia	616
2.2. Innovations in Public Procurement System of Post-Soviet Armenia.....	618
3. Capacity for Innovation in Armenian Procurement Processes through Strategic Application of Organizational Models.....	622
3.1. Trials for establishment of a partially centralized procurement system	622
3.2. Possibilities for joint cross-border innovation and the EU-Armenia enhanced partnership and cooperation agreement	624
4. What Armenia Can Learn from other Post-Soviet Union Countries.....	626
4.1. Innovations in Georgia’s public procurement system.....	626
4.2. Georgia’s successful example for EU integration.....	628
5. Conclusions	631
Detailed table of contents	633