Re: Permission to use University's Book

Dear Prof. Yukins,

The George Washington University ("University") agrees to grant you permission to use and otherwise reproduce a book entitled History of Government Contracting by James F. Nagle (the "Book"). Specifically, you are granted a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free license to post the Book on your personal website so that it is freely available to the public ("License"). A copy of the front matter for the Book is attached as Exhibit A.

You may not use the Book for any additional purpose not otherwise provided for in the License without the express written consent of the University. You must not use the Book in any way that portrays the University in a negative, derogatory, or false light.

You must also provide appropriation and credit to the University as follows when using the Book:
